Contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. Contributions will be used in connection with federal elections and are subject to the limitations and prohibitions of federal law. The maximum an individual may contribute is $2,500 for the primary election and an additional $2,500 for the general election. Couples may contribute up to $5,000 for each election; joint contributions require the signature of both spouses. Federal multi-candidate PACs may contribute up to $5,000 for each election. Contributions from corporations, federal government contractors, and foreign nationals without permanent residency status are prohibited. Contributions must be made from personal funds and may not be reimbursed by any other person.
